She could still leave, right now, if she wanted to. Put a stop to this, keep her good, well-behaved, wait-a-month-into-the-relationship panties on and leave. Dear God, the very idea of walking out of here was downright laughable.

Tasha Parks dropped out of college, cashed in her savings and opened an ice cream store. All her energy should be going into that store. There's just one problem. Patrick Abington. Handsome, sweet and oh so shy, all Tasha wants for Christmas is him.

Patrick has had his eye on Tasha since she moved to town and opened the only ice cream store for miles. Being flat broke has kept him from asking her out. When a friend gets them in the same room, he can't back away. Desperate not to let her go, it's time to think out of the box for ways he can win her heart.

44,600 words.

Novella includes a two chapter excerpt of the next in the series, Never Stopped Loving You.
