Do you believe in the existence of a literal Hell? In this compelling, yet disturbing account of a near death experience, author Sue Jones takes us on a journey through the abyss. She stood at the gates of Hell, in the demon infested darkness known only as the outer region, and was driven by guilt and condemnation to enter those dark portals- When Mercy Said No! She called on the name of Jesus, and then there was Light. Her expert weaving of words creates a picture that cannot be driven from the mind and leaves us with no doubt that Sue was merely a vessel in the hands of the Holy Spirit.
