This interesting essay presents the amazing Spanish version of everybody favorite mutant's team: the new X-Men.

When the Marvel comics were first launched in the country, the publisher commissioned local artists Enrich (Vampirella) and López Espí to draw new covers in a painted colorful stile. These Marvel superheroes versions were simply awesome, even having also some mistakes, like presents Storm blonde and white skin (!!!) for several issues. All this make them very curious, but mainly they are very interesting artistically. Fully illustrated with X-men and much other s Spanish covers and comparisons between them and the original Marvel issues.

Salvador Molina, who grown reading these comic-books, is also an expert in the matter, having written several texts about it in eBooks format and in the prestigious Spanish magazine Dolmen. Now for the first time available in English.
