Dead Not Dead John Charles Miller

Jack and Susanna O'Neill of Grand Island, Nebraska want to do something different with their life, after Jack's increasingly boring years teaching high school history to uninterested students. A quick celebratory post-retirement trip to Mexico City exposes them to possibilities of something more exciting. Curiosity, in their search for a place to retire, leads them to the beautiful 16th century colonial city of Guanajuato in central Mexico. Oblivious to most of what is going on around him, a maelstrom of events and places in a WHEN and a WHERE beyond Jack's control and an indecisiveness to timely confronting life and death almost causes him to lose his life-force.
