In Vedic astrology when a planet in a birth chart is in its debilitation sign, like Venus in Virgo, it is said to be "neecha" or "fallen," and therefore incapable of giving good results in its period and sub-periods. All of what it signifies, such as love relationships for Venus, suffer, as well as the significations of the houses of the birth chart that it rules. However, there are certain conditions that change this status and enable such planets to give good, even spectacular results. This article aimed at intermediate to advance students teaches you to recognize all such special conditions that can turn an apparently "weakling" planet into a "powerhouse," such as President Barrack Obama's debilitated Jupiter. The article is 70 pages in manuscript form and contains over 30 illustrations.
