This book is about discovering child's mental life all over again. More than 100 years ago Maria Montessori developed entire education system based how the child taught himself how to speak. It is self-taught, effortless, joyful and healthy learning. Her work is proved by science, Montessori schools are very successful, but majority of people don't now what it is. If every person would know what is happening with the brain from birth to age of 6, we would be going towards world peace, towards brand new civilization: caring and giving. If you know any children ages 3-6, you can give them the biggest gift ever - a #1 Home Kit, called "Boxes and Bottles" and see how Montessori comes to life.
