The popular Historical Highland Romance Series available as a boxed set for the first time...

The Highlander's Harlot — Book One

When her father is to be hanged by the laird, young Heather pleads for mercy. As a poor crofter's daughter, Heather doesn't have anything to offer the but her maidenhead—a payment Laird John Macrae is willing to take in exchange for her father's life.

The laird intends to ruin her, to shame her father as punishment for his crimes. Instead, he awakens desires inside her that she never knew existed. Between lust and loyalty, Heather finds the courage to prove to the laird that whatever his darkest desires, she is the only woman who can fill them...

Torn Between Two Highlanders — Book Two

When a crofter's daughter is kidnapped from her home by a rival clan, two highland warriors come to her rescue, but which one will win her favors?

Since Arabella's reputation is already ruined, she now feels free to bestow her soiled virtue upon the man of her choice. But Davy and Malcolm—close as brothers—are willing to share her for a single night. Awakened to her own carnal desires, Arabella indulges the men. But when the arrangement lasts for more than just one night, and lust becomes love, Arabella is torn between the quiet depths of taciturn Malcolm and Davy's sensual charm.

At the Laird's Command — Book Three

Laird John Macrae is in love with a woman whose reputation he ruined. A woman he cannot keep safe unless he allows the unthinkable...

With his castle under siege and a traitor within its walls, the laird counts his days as numbered. What he wants is to ensure the safety of his clan and the spirited Scottish lass that he loves—a simple crofter's daughter he took for his harlot and cannot now give the protection of his name. But he believes his kinsman, Ian Macrae, can give her protection that he cannot. And to save her from the enemies who would use her against him, he must find the strength within himself to give her away. Will she obey her laird—and if she does, will they ever find their way back together again?
