Your child will love this story: Polly Pig and her son Piglet want to go to summer camp. They've been rolling in the mud and have to shower before they can get on the bus. But, Polly can't turn the shower faucets because her hooves don't have thumbs! Will the bus leave without them?

IF I ONLY HAD THUMBS are unique among children's picture books. In light and humorous rhyme, Steve Gabany creates partnerships between unlikely animals—one needing help, the other able to help. With gentleness, humor, and a focus on family, IF I ONLY HAD THUMBS reminds children that helping others and accepting differences among each other is a good and important thing to do to make their world a better place.

Polly Pig's story is all about fun. Expect to laugh right along with your child—a lot!

Arlene Berry's extraordinarily-creative, full-page illustrations perfectly complement the story.
