How to write a Book in 30 Days is a guide to writing a book from conceiving the original idea, through formatting and publishing through marketing. A strong emphasis is on publishing through Amazon's Kindle, with minor advice on publishing as PDFs. The author of the book has all of her books on Kindle and feels it is the best digital platform for eBooks today. She has tried other routes, including print vanity publishing and through the other e-publishers. She feels that Kindle offers authors the best chances with success with their book.

At the time of publishing this book "How to Write a Book in 30 Days" she has 8 others already published and listed exclusively on Kindle. This book is a guide through the steps she takes in writing her books. Another area of recommendation is in using Microsoft's Word for creation of the Kindle format, though other software programs are mentioned. Most of the advice centers around finding a book topic with how to put the words from the mind and into files to create the books.
