Mi Fe VI: Pangea, buscando el Jardin del Eden (Spanish Edition) Walter L. Tayes

El Jardín del Edén es un hermoso lugar que Dios creó para que viviéramos allí al principio de la creación. El Jardín era muy especial porque contenía unos árboles que Dios había plantado para que los humanos practicáramos nuestro libre albedrío, el cual es decidir si seguimos el bien o si seguimos el mal, ya que Dios nos prohibió comer de dichos arboles. De acuerdo a la Biblia los primeros humanos siguieron el mal y comieron de uno de los arboles. De acuerdo a los humanos de hoy en día Dios nos expulsó del hermoso Jardín por nuestra des-obediencia. Expulsión significa que Dios no nos quiere en el Jardín; sin embargo, fieles a nuestra desobediencia natural, los humanos continuamos tratando de encontrar el Jardín para volver después de haber sido sacados. En esta historia, fieles a nuestra ignorancia natural, nos vamos en busca del preciado lugar.
