Open Secrets: An Irish Perspective on Trafficking and Witchcraft Jennifer DeWan, David Lohan

OPEN SECRETS grew out of a practical need to understand the human trafficking and witchcraft encountered during Cois Tine's work with immigrants in Ireland. It provides a clear description of human trafficking, its causes, processes, effects, and of the violence and greed that lie at its heart.

Witchcraft is examined from the perspective of its history and its different manifestations in Europe and Africa. During the colonial era and into modern times, these manifestations have intermingled and influenced each other and now, in modern Ireland, they meet again in the violence of human trafficking. OPEN SECRETS is a must read for all who seek to gain an understanding of these issues.
