Sugababes: The Story of Britain's Most Amazing Girl Band Emily Sheridan

With their unique brand of pop and their amazing sense of style, the Sugababes have rightfully carved their niche in the world of modern music and become one of the most popular girl bands in the world. Never out of the headlines or far from the front cover of a magazine, the Sugababes have produced a winning blend of genuine talent and commercial success. This fascinating, in-depth book is the first to bring the full story of the group and all of its members, both past and present, to life. This resource reveals the early days of the girls and how they got together, charts their lives and loves and reveals how, despite the constant press stories of impending splits and fighting, the Sugababes have proved that they are still one of the most enduring and in-demand girl bands in pop history.
