In 2012 Pete Sortwell did something no one had ever done before: he wrote a book based entirely on Amazon product reviews. The book was so successful, he wrote a series. The series was so successful, he spent the next year releasing other projects he'd been working on. Now, for the first time the stories he wrote while learning his craft are available on Kindle and in paperback.

From people stuck on roofs, to stalkers following their wives, to weight watchers' meetings, this book is filled with oddballs, thieves, lowlifes, and other such lovelies. This book also contains the side story to Pete's debut novel 'So Low, So High', so if you're interested in finding out more about Fred, then this is the place.

Short stories:

Noang lish

Hero

Lose-lose

So low, so high

WeighTWATcherS

Multi-storey

Apt Pupil

One flew over the policeman's bonnet

Win-win

Inside I'm dancing

*Contained in this book are also samples of all Pete's other books. The short stories amount to around eleven thousand words.
