Do not open until Christmas A cautionary tale Gregg Nannini

This is a collection of short stories primarily for children for Christmas. However, readers should be warned that the first story Do not open Until Christmas is a cautionary tale and does not have what could be perceived as a happy ending. There is an alternative ending for the politically correct minded. Parents should read this story first and decide for themselves. The story is along the lines of perhaps a goosebumps type of tale, or a pre grimm fairy tale before the stories were sanitized.
