Waiting... On You (Force Recon Marines Book 1) S.A. Monk

Hanna Wallace is a brilliant trauma surgeon who heads up the ER facility in the small Pacific Northwest coastal community where she lives with her family and close friends. She is also a woman who has waited a long, long time for the man she grew up with and has always loved. At eighteen, Nick left home to become a Force Recon Marine and follow in his father's heroic footsteps. While they have stayed in touch with one another for years, they have seen little of each other. Except for one brief fateful night, they've never had the time to explore their deeper feelings for one another. Hanna longs for Nick to see her as more than his best friend.

When Hanna's brother is murdered and Nick's brother goes missing, their closely-knit family is thrown into the dangerous world of international drug smuggling. Nick comes home from his deployment in Afghanistan to find his brother. The two work together to unravel an intricate plot of revenge. Their families and their community are placed squarely in the center of the threat.

They have time, at last, to be together and delve deeper than friendship. Their relationship goes from long distance to intimate in a blaze of hot passion. But a drug lord from Nick's past is determined to exact retribution, and Hanna is caught in the crossfire, literally.

Their desires alone may not be the only thing that determines whether they can work through all the obstacles and have a future together.
