Have you always been curious about making your own wine at home? Did you know that the wine business is one of the most lucrative industries today?

The good news is that this book, “Wine Making: A Beginner’s Guide to Make Your Own Wine at Home”, is here to help you. It contains even the tiniest details about producing your own wine, not in a famous winery with highly advanced and often expensive equipment, but in the comforts of your own home using only the simplest tools and equipment, some you will find are already in your own kitchen.

With the aid of this book, you will appreciate wines even more since you will know exactly how you can create your own. You can also impress your guests by serving them wines that you make whenever they get the chance to visit your home.

I write about the following (and more) in this book

- ✓ How wine became such a lucrative industry
- ✓ The wine making process
- ✓ From harvesting to bottling
- ✓ Basic wine making ingredients and equipment

- ✓ Uncovering the truths on some wine making myths
- ✓ Great wine making recipes
- ✓ The “10 Commandments” of Wine Making!
