In the fifth installment of A Thug's Charm.

Couple fight relentlessly to save their marriages and relationships.

Kara and Jamison's union has been tested by a plethora of situations and circumstances. Conversely, the couple finally gets it together. However, a deceitful past is knocking at their door. The devil herself rears it's ugly head and brings a small token of love along with it.

Q's harbored heroine addiction lands him on the floor of a trap house with little to no life to fight for. While on the other side of town, medics do all that they can to save the precious baby girl after finalizing on her mother.

Once again we're left to wonder if love will trump all or will our favorite couple's be salvaged beyond repair?
