Everlasting is the rich tale of Vada Priddy, forced into marriage to a man 20 years her senior. In spite of the adversities she encounters, she manages to forge a decent life, one with its share of happiness and fulfillment, and grows into a strong, Oklahoma woman at peace with her family and friends. This warm-hearted, graceful novel is certain to give readers the exhilarating, inspirational experience of a mid-twentieth century woman and her daily struggles. Its authentic dialogue and imagery leave a long-lasting impression.
