The Beauty and The Saddle Tramp John Savage

Gunfights were not unusual in the Old West, but Seth should have known that it was a mistake to shoot it out with the son of one of the richest men in the territory. He had to run, unintentionally picking up the man's beautiful daughter on the way, and then he dared not let her go lest she lead the posse to him. As much as she complained, it seemed that she did not really mind too much took her with him, tied and restrained. Her womanly assets were mighty inviting, especially when they needed to sleep together under a single blanket to keep warm on the cold nights.

As he escaped across the border into Mexico, he picked up three beautiful señoritas and a wagonload of gold bars. Trouble was, he needed to keep the señoritas, or they would lead bounty hunters right to him. Soon, as much as he was sure it would lead to trouble, he could not refuse the charms of the beautiful women. Of course, he had to keep them chained or tied, just in case they ran off and caused trouble for him. For some reason, none of them seemed to have any problem with that at all...
