Rock starlet, Amelia Marsh, is notorious for her beauty and powerful singing voice. Unfortunately, she is also well known for being unable to commit to anything other than her band, 'The Bystander Effect'. The ghosts of her childhood haunt her daily, and have forced her to place certain rules over her life; 'No boyfriends, no groupies'. That's worked for her for a long time. Being self-sufficient and independent gave the twenty-two year old songstress back the control she was once deprived of. That's all going to go to hell the moment she meets Cj Pearce. In this combination edition of 'I'm With The Band' and 'All My Demons', read the tale of her struggle to relinquish command and learn to be commanded in one place. From the moment their eyes meet, to the second her cruel past releases it's grip on her soul. . . Laugh, love and meet her halfway.
