Detective Carlos Teague just met the woman of his dreams but his nightmare has just begun.

Hardworking and a bachelor, he has yet to find a woman who could take both his mind and time away from his one true love, his job. Confined to long days at the police sub-station and lonely nights in his small apartment wrapped in detective work, he settles for remaining a bachelor. Then chance knocks at his door when sexy Capri Allen decides she wants to add some spice to her not so ordinary life by asking him out for coffee. Not wanting to jeopardize his commitment to his job but at the same time, unable to resist the gorgeous Capri, Carlos accepts her invitation. Unaware, she's the daughter of Harold 'Heavy' Levy, the biggest drug kingpin in North Carolina, a romance with a plethora of passion ensues.

Well-connected and ruthless, Heavy is outraged when he learns of the affair between Carlos and Capri. After much manipulation, not only does Heavy learn of Capri's disloyalty and defiance but he finds that Carlos is responsible for his only son's incarceration. Without considering Capri's own life and the love she has for both men, Heavy chooses the only route known to him to get back at the man who worked his daughter to the other side of the law. He goes to great lengths to make Carlos pay, but will he forgive his daughter for bedding with the enemy or take her down with him?

Can Capri simmer the turbulence caused between her detective boyfriend and her drug dealing father before it's too late? Or will she learn that blood may not be thick as water.
