Shadow of an Island White: Hidden in the middle of the Caribbean Sea, there is a resort (Isla Blanca/White Island) so exclusive, it only caters to the most expensive tastes and pockets. The problem is that nobody seems to know exactly where this resort is located, who it belongs to or what goes on there. The two main characters of the novel are lured into this resort. Thinking that they are about to have a great time, they soon discover their experience in this place is not like anything they expected. Or, is it?
